meat	tertiary	consumers
food chain	plants	herbivores

1. A _____ describes how organisms eat each other for survival.
2. A food chain starts with a plant and finishes with an _____.
3. Plants are the only living beings that can create _____.
4. _____ only eat plants.
5. Carnivores only eat _____.
6. _____ eat plants and other animals.
7. A carnivore that eats another carnivore is a _____ consumer.
8. Detrivores is a different name for _____.
9. The nutrients that decomposers release into the soil is used by _____.
10. A _____ is an animal that captures and eats other animals.
11. The _____ is the animal that is captured and eaten.
12. A _____ is the connection between different food chains.

Food web	energy	animal
omnivores	predator	prey

LIVEWORKSHEETS