Fay: What are you doing, Grandma?
Grandma: I'm trying to turn on the computer.
Fay: You have to press this button.
Grandma: OK.
Fay: What do you want to do?
Grandma: I want to make a cake for my friend Olivia's party. I'm going there tonight.She told me about a website with lots of recipes.
Fay: Do you know how to surf the Net?
Grandma: No, this is my first time. Do I type what I want on the keyboard?
Fay: Yes, but first use the mouse to go here. Then, type the name of the website.
Grandma: There we go. Hmmm, let me get a pen so I can write some recipes down.
Fay: You don't have to do that. You can print them out on the printer.
Grandma: That's good, thanks.
Fay: No problem.
Grandma: I'll go make my cake now.
Fay: I can help you, Grandma.
Grandma: No, you don't have to help me any more. I know what I'm doing in the kitchen.
Fay: OK, then I'll download some music.
