June 13, 2021

The leaders 1)_____ to share more than 1 billion COVID vaccine doses, among other 2) _____.

U.K. Prime Minister Boris Johnson praised the 3) _____among the Group of Seven nations leaders as they wrapped up their three-day summit on Sunday.

The leaders pledged to share more than 1 4) _____COVID vaccine doses with poorer nations, vowed to help developing countries grow their economies while 5) _____ climate change and agreed to back a minimum 6) _____ on multinational firms.

They also agreed to 7) _____ China's "non-market economic practices" and call out Beijing for human rights 8) _____ in Xinjiang and Hong Kong.

President Joe Biden said the U.S. had 9) _____ its presence on the world stage after "an extraordinarily 10) _____ and productive meeting" at the Group of Seven summit.

"I conveyed to each of my G-7 11) _____that the United States is going to do our part. 12) _____is back at the table," he said. "A lack of 13) _____in the past and full 14) _____ was noticed significantly – not only by the leaders of those countries, but by the people in the G-7 countries. America is back and in the business of leading the world 15) _____ nations who share our most deeply-held values."

Additional reporting by The Associated Press.

LIVEWORKSHEETS