Verb to be

1. Complete using the correct form of the verb to be in affirmative.

You____ a vain person.

He____ my father.

They____ friends of mine.

She____ the best student in the class.

I____ in the city.

We____ too fat.

You____ in the wrong place.

Susan____ really clever.

It____ a beautiful place.

I____ interested in the house.

Travis____ taller than me.

Erwin and Joanna____ walking to the beach.

You____ wearing my t-shirt.

They____ talking about business.

Tyler and I____ in the same path.

It____ my favorite pencil.

She____ a neighbor.

I____ stuck in the same question.

TEACHER JOHAO BRIONES

LIVEWORKSHEETS

2. Complete using the correct form of the verb to be in negative.

She_____ welcome in this place.

You_____ part of this committee.

We_____ in the same class.

He_____ friendly with us.

I_____ working under that pressure.

They_____ following the rules.

It_____ ugly as you mentioned before.

I_____ that strong.

She_____ very fast.

Alicia and Charles_____ best friends anymore.

George_____ in the hospital.

Ants_____ big.

Our country_____ in Europe.

You_____ very clever, are you?

3. Complete using the correct form of the verb to be in questions.

____ she your cousin?

____ you new in the school?

____ I the tallest guy here?

____ we ready for this?

____ he the guardian of the castle?

____ you fast or slow?

____ it the way we do it?

____ I useful for the show?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

4. Write about people you know using affirmative and negative sentences.

	+
	-
	+
	-
	+
	-
	+
	-
	+
	-
	+
	-
	+
	-
	+
	-
	+
	-

TEACHER JOHAO BRIONES

LIVEWORKSHEETS