Third Conditional

Uses:
- The person is imagining a different past.
- Imaginary situation that did not happen.
- To show the consequences of the IF clause.

If + Past perfect + would have + past participle

Examples:
1) If you had studied, you would have passed the exam.
2) If I hadn't been sick, I would have gone to your party.
3) If we had left earlier, we wouldn't have missed the plane.

Third Conditional

Going BACK in TIME to the PAST

What would you have done differently?
