NATIONAL AND LOCAL PRODUCE

1- Match the produce to the pictures, and the countries you associate it with. What do you know about these different foods and how they are produced?

1 Jalapeño chili peppers	a France
2 Fish sauce	b Greece
3 Thick yoghurt	c Mexico
4 Chorizo sausage	d Italy
5 Pate	e Thailand
6 Parmesan cheese	f Spain and Portugal

2 Listen and check, and complete the sentences.

1 Jalapeno chilli peppers originally came from the Xalapa region in Mexico, _____ over 160 sq km of land is dedicated to their production. They're picked and eaten while green, _____ they're not too hot.
2 It's very popular with Thai people, _____ use it in most of their dishes.
3 Thick yoghurt is strained to remove more of the liquid, _____ makes it thicker than ordinary yoghurt.
4 It's very spicy, with a flavour _____ people often find too strong at first, but grow to love.

- This is the type of cheese which is produced in my region.
- I'm going to give you my favourite type of French cheese, which is produced in northern France.

3 Listen to the two sentences in the Spotlight on relative clauses. Which one has a slight pause before the relative pronoun?

4 Match the two sentence halves, adding a comma at the end of the first halves if necessary. Then say the complete sentences, with a slight pause where necessary.

1 One of the latest popular health foods is quinoa	A who grows the apples we ate yesterday.
2 I really enjoyed the bread	B when they are cool and fresh.
3 The worst meal we had was in Edinburgh	C where most of the olives are grown.
4 Seaweed is popular with the Japanese	D which is grown in South America.
5 This is the region	E when most Spanish people go out to eat.
6 The grapes are picked in the early morning	F where we decided to try haggis!
7 That's the farmer	G who use it to make sushi and other dishes.
8 9 pm is the time	H that you gave us at breakfast.

5 Listen, check, and repeat.

useful language

Describing food

It goes well with ...
It's usually served with ...
It's a speciality of ...
It's delicious / divine / gorgeous!
I couldn't live without ...
I'm addicted to ...

Adjectives

spicy sweet crispy sour
bitter crunchy
salty creamy

LIVEWORKSHEETS