READING

Being a caretaker is not an exciting job. You are normally responsible for a building, maybe a school, or an apartment block. But in Australia, there is an opportunity to become the caretaker of a beautiful tropical island for six months. What are the requirements? The applicant must have written weekly blogs for at least a year and have experience taking photos and filming videos for over 2 years (any experience will do, even videos uploaded to social media). The pay? Well, it is about 95 million Chilean pesos for 6 months! The caretaker will live in a comfortable three-bedroom house with a swimming pool. Don't wait too long to apply. The last time this job became vacant, there were about 35,000 job applicants from all over the world.

Editorial Creation

1. Read the information about the job posting and make notes, about:

- Duration of employment:
- Salary:
- Experience:
- Accommodation:

AFTER - READING

2. Read the description bellow. Then find other compound nouns in the jobs' box.

Compound nouns consist of two words put together. Some can be written as one word, while others are two separate words.

e.g. care + taker = caretaker / wheel + chair = wheelchair

bus + driver = bus driver / theme + park = theme park

accountant actor/actress businessperson cook dentist doctor farmer firefighter journalist lifeguard nurse photographer pilot salesperson scientist teacher technician tour guide translator veterinarian waiter/waitress

3. Write the name of the jobs from the box in their corresponding definitions.

A My job can be dangerous. I stop fires and rescue people and drive a large vehicle.	B I look after sick people and do surgeries. I work in a hospital and wear special clothes.	C I keep records of money and finance. I'm good at maths.
D My job is to help people visit unfamiliar areas during special trips.	E I work maintaining the safety of swimmers at beaches or pools.	F I work flying airplanes and taking people to different destinations.

4. What's your favorite job from the box?

Language in Use

Present Perfect: How long, for & since

- We use the present perfect with for and since to talk about activities or situations that started in the past and continue in the present.
e.g. We've worked at this company for 8 years.
Pablo hasn't played football since September.
- We use How long to ask questions.
e.g. How long have you played the drums?*
