

F3 L65 – LISTENING

TASK 1: Read the sentences below about a race. Two of the options given fill the gap correctly. For each sentence, click on the options that fit the sentence.

competitors	limits	athletes
--------------------	---------------	-----------------

In this race, the _____ must be extremely fit and strong.

most challenging	toughest	incredible
-------------------------	-----------------	-------------------

The event is one of the _____ in the world.

deal with	carry on	cope with
------------------	-----------------	------------------

Competitors must _____ some very difficult conditions.

hot	dry	windiest
------------	------------	-----------------

Most deserts are extremely _____ places.

event	success	competition
--------------	----------------	--------------------

Only a small number of people can enter this _____

TASK 2: Practice saying the alphabet. Then, listen and write down the words are spelt. Click  to listen to the recording.

1 _____

3 _____

2 _____

4 _____

TASK 3: You will hear some information about a race in extreme parts of the world. For each sentence, fill in the missing information in the numbered space. Click  to listen to the recording.

The Four Deserts Race

The race starts in the (1) _____ Desert, in Chile.

Length of each part of the race: (2) _____ km.

Gobi Desert: problems include strong (3) _____ and snow in the mountains.

Sahara Desert: competitors find it difficult to (4) _____ because of the sandstorms.

The final part of the race is in the (5) _____ desert.

Competitors can see penguins, seals and (6) _____.

Competitors sleep on a (7) _____.

Competitors run in very (8) _____ conditions.