

Activity 6

Which Aid to Trade represent the following description

Description	Aids to trade
1. Allows sellers to receive their payments into their bank accounts and to have their deposits stored safely.
2. Inform and remind consumer the availability goods and services and try to persuade them to buy.
3. Provide protection against losses which result from risks in trading.
4. Provide storage facilities for goods after manufacturing so that they can be sold later.
5. Helps trade by facilitating the movement of goods and passengers from one place to another
6. To transmit and receive information quickly.

[6 marks]