As a youngster, I was extremely money motivated. My friend and (0) me would come up with new money-making schemes all the time. (1) However making and selling arts and crafts, perfume and lemonade, we would also dig (2) at the nearby office park's skips in search of soda cans (3) or other treasures. Most of the time, we would (4) collects the cans and trade in them for money so that we (5) can buy candy from the store. But one summer, we collected (6) thousand of Pepsi soda ring pulls and traded them in for a one-night stay at a hotel. Growing up, my family (7) is on a tight budget. To help make ends meet, my sister and I would wear hand-me-downs (8) with relatives and friends, and my mother would sell our old clothes at consignment shops. Being brought up this way – I guess it was only natural for me to resell my old clothes for money too.

It's crazy how many ways you can make money if you try.
