Name: _____ Date: _____

Grade level/Section: _____

Fill in the blanks: Read the sentences below and type the correct answer that will complete the statements.

crust	upper	lower	core
largest	Geothermal gradient	two	viscous
lower		Inner core

1. The _____ is the outermost layer of Earth. It is the thinnest layer as it makes up only about one percent of Earth.
2. The mantle is the _____ layer of Earth that is composed of iron, aluminum, calcium, magnesium, silicon, and oxygen.
3. _____ is believed to be the one responsible for different rock behaviors within the mantle.
4. The mantle is divided into _____ zones: _____ and _____ mantle.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5. The upper mantle is a highly _____ layer which lies between the crust and the lower mantle.

6. The _____ mantle are the hot and soft layer.

7. The _____ is the last and the innermost layer which is separated into the liquid outer core and the solid inner core.

8. The _____ can be found at the deepest region of the planet.

LIVEWORKSHEETS