

To be – affirmative, negative and interrogative forms

Complete with the verb “to be” -Affirmative form: am ('m), are('re), is('s)

They.....in the park with their friends.

She.....a very sociable girl.

I.....an English teacher.

We.....at the seaside and we have a great time.

You.....in the classroom.

Complete with the verb “to be” - Negative form: am not('m not), are not(aren't), is not(isn't)

Tom.....my best friend, Andy is.

My parents.....at work, they are at home.

Mary.....very friendly.

I.....interested in your project.

Tina and Anne.....at school today.

Complete with the verb “to be” – Interrogative form

..... (he) your little brother?

.....(they) in the countryside?

.....(her dad) a famous actor?

.....(you) my best friend?

.....(my cousin) outside?

Physical appearance and clothes

I. Match the following idioms with the corresponding definition:

- | | |
|-----------------------------|---|
| 1) peas in a pod; | a) wearing very smart clothes in order to be admired; |
| 2) have a sense of style; | b) be very similar; |
| 3) put your face on; | c) know what clothes to wear; |
| 4) dressed to kill; | d) apply make-up; |
| 5) dressed up to the nines; | e) wearing formal clothes for a special event. |

II. Put the following adjectives under the correct heading:

plain; stylish; lanky; spindly; disheveled; cropped; coarse; chubby; tailored; patterned.

Appearance	Clothes