

Ignore the gaps. Listen and correct untrue information about services:

1. They _____ an efficient service. We can _____ them to _____ orders early and that _____ us to _____ excellent relationships with all our co-workers.
2. Being relevant with what's happening in the world is really necessary to me. And this also _____ me know what's happening in the food markets, wherever I am. It also _____ to make profitable decisions about what to buy and order.
3. It's so much immediate than going there and I don't have to ask if it's open or if there are a lot of foreign people. I just log on any time, and all I do is buy the products I want and give my contact number. It really _____ me to manage my life better.
4. I was so depressed when it opened. It _____ me work part-time and still have time with my boyfriend in the middle of the day.

Listen again. Fill in the gaps with verbs