An Airplane Crash

One day, Pak Rizal was working in his paddy field. Suddenly, he saw a small aeroplane flying low over the field. There was a trail of thick black smoke coming from the tail of the plane 1._____

Pak Rizal quickly thought of what to do. The small plane plunged and crashed into the paddy field with a deafening sound. The plane broke into two 2._____

When some of the smoke cleared. Pak Rizal ventured near the cockpit. He could see that the pilot was still inside. 3._____

He was slumped against his seat. For a moment,

Pak Rizal was shocked. He did not know what to do. Panic seized him.4._____

Two farmers came to his aid. Together, they rushed to the scene of the crash.

Pak Rizal and his friends hurriedly dragged the pilot from the plane. They felt his pulse 5._____

His thigh had a deep cut while his leg appeared mangled. The three farmers stopped a passing car.6._____

They thanked the driver and hoped the pilot would recover soon. Pak Rizal and his friends then continued working in their paddy field.

A.Pak Rizal sensed that the plane had engine failure.

B. He seemed to be unconscious.

C. A huge column of black smoke was coming out of the wreckage.

D. He was still alive but badly injured.

E. Then, he quickly ran to another farmer's house and asked for help.

F. He was sound asleep.

G. They asked the driver to send the pilot to a hospital.

H. They accompanied the driver in the car.

LIVEWORKSHEETS