Writing - Put the sentences in paragraphs 1, 2, 3 and 4 in the correct order. The words in bold will help you.

Should young people always be punished when they break a rule?

A However, they often break them, sometimes causing serious problems to other people or doing something illegal.
B The question is whether punishment is always the right solution.
C Following rules is part of a young person's education.

1st paragraph: 1 _____ 2 ____ 3 ____

D Moreover, their youth prevents them from understanding how important rules are.
E Because of this, they cannot make important decisions for their life before the age of 18.
F Therefore, sometimes they do not even know they are doing something wrong.
G On the one hand, we know that young people are not old enough to be responsible for all their actions.

2nd paragraph: 4 _____ 5 _____ 6 _____ 7 ____

H Lastly, in real life, adults are punished if they commit a crime and young people will soon become adults.
I On the other hand, youngsters should learn that everybody should follow the rules.
J In addition, breaking a rule can be a serious crime.
K For example, somebody who drives a car without a licence can cause an accident or may injure passers-by.

3rd paragraph: 8 ____ 9 ____ 10 _____ 11 ____

L In my opinion, young people should be given a second chance to make it up.
M In the end, we should all respect each other and the rules to live in an orderly society.
N However, if what they did is serious they should be punished severely.

4th paragraph: 12 ____ 13 ____ 14 ____

LIVEWORKSHEETS