

Error Correction – My family.

There are six members in my family. I am the youngest of four siblings. Being the youngest, I must admit that my parents tend to pamper me more (0) then my brothers and sisters. There are times when my siblings find this annoying but we still (1) loved each other very much. My brother Andre and Aaron are twins. They will be (2) seating for (3) they're SPM examination at the end of the year. They study very hard. My parents, sister and I give them a lot of moral (4) supports. They hope to (5) obtained straight As in their SPM. I always make sure to be quiet (6) elder. She is now in college and will (7) graduated in another year. She is currently taking a business and (8) market course. She hopes to become successful in sales management. We all hope she achieves her ambition. We are (9) confidence that she can do it. We are a very (10) closed and loving family. We have our ups and downs but at the end of the day, "blood is always thicker than water".

Error Correction – Rainy season

Rainy days are common in a tropical country like Malaysia. In Kelantan and Terengganu, heavy rain can be (0) witness during the monsoon season at the end of the year. A rainy day is (1) dislike by most school (2) child like me because it keeps us indoors and we lose any chance of (3) play outside. My school is situated in a rural area beside a canal. (4) This Monday, all of a sudden, the clouds became darker and (5) darkest. It was soon followed by a heavy downpour. The rain started at about 10.00 a.m. and (6) continue for more than an hour. The school and also the nearby village were soon flooded. The teachers could (7) teaching very little during the thunderstorm as the (8) boom thunder and the sound of rain falling like bullets on the zinc rooftops was simply (9) deafeningly. The school dismissed (10) a hour earlier than usual and we had to walk back in knee-deepwater. Some of my schoolmates dropped their bags in the water accidentally. By the time they recovered their schoolbags, their books were dripping wet.
