READING COMPREHENSION

DIFFERENT MEANS OF TRANSPORT

Based on text in page 62 (Student's Book Get Smart Plus 4). Answer the questions by choosing the correct answers below.

1. What does a tuk-tuk look like?
2. Where does the driver sit?
3. How many people can sit in the back?
4. Why do tourists take tuk-tuks in Thailand?
5. What are gondolas?
6. Why did people ride gondolas in the past?
7. Where do people ride gondolas?
8. Are gondolas fast?
9. Is riding in a gondola comfortable?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

10. Do tourists like gondolas?

11. What do people ride snowmobiles on?

12. Have snowmobiles got wheels?

13. Are snowmobiles slow?

14. What do snowmobiles drivers have to wear?

No, they're not. They can go very fast.

No, it isn't.

It looks like a motorbike with three wheels.

No, they aren't. They're slow.

They ride gondolas in Venice, Italy.

The driver sits in the front.

Long boats.

They have to wear helmet and very warm clothes.

To get from one place to another.

No, they haven't. They've got skis.

They ride snowmobiles on snow.

Two or three people.

Yes, they do.

They can be faster than taxis, and riding in tuk-tuk's is fun and exciting, too.

LIVEWORKSHEETS