Present Simple Tense VS Present Continuous Tense

I. Choose the time expressions for the PRESENT SIMPLE tense.

at the moment usually now
every weekend this afternoon
never right now today
every evening this week always every day twice a year this morning

II. Choose the correct words in the sentences.

1- Mike is British and he lives / is living in London.
2- At the moment, he lives / is living in a house in Namibia.
3- Mike works / is working in a hospital at the moment.
4- Many people are working / work as volunteers three times a week.
5- Look outside! It snows / is snowing!
6- It often snows / is snowing here.
7- We always wear / are always wearing a uniform to school.
8- Paula wears / is wearing black jeans today.
9- Come inside! It rains / is raining a lot now.
10- It rains / is raining a lot in February.
11- Dad cooks / is cooking at the moment.
12- My mother cooks / is cooking lunch every Sunday.
13- Steve's terrible! He never listens / is never listening to the teacher.

III. Write the correct tense (Present Simple or Present Continuous)

1- Sarah usually _____ (walk) to school, but today she _____ (go) by bike.
2- We _____ (have) Geography lessons twice a week. We _____ (learn) about volcanoes at the moment.
3- Julia _____ (surf) the net this afternoon. She _____ (want) to find some information for a project.
4- I _____ (know) his face, but I _____ (not remember) his name.
5- We _____ (not dance) tonight because we _____ (not like) the music.
6- What _____ this word _____ (mean)? I _____ (not understand) it.

LIVEWORKSHEETS
LIVEWORKSHEETS