

1. Une la columna izquierda con la derecha para formar oraciones relacionadas al expresar consejo. Ojo: una de las columnas tiene una oración que sobra.

1. I feel sick, so
2. Mum told my teacher
3. My crush has a girlfriend, so
4. My best friend fell asleep in class.

- a. I should move on.
- b. I shouldn't get more milk for breakfast.
- c. He should definitely go to bed earlier today.
- d. she should take a break.
- e. He should do more exercise.

2. Escribe should /shouldn't en las oraciones para expresar correctamente un consejo

- a) Cata has low marks in Spanish. She _____ continue skipping classes.
- b) Your dad isn't nice to strangers. He _____ change his personality.
- c) There _____ be more green spaces in the future to practice sports.
- d) Erika is a great runner, so she _____ specialize in swimming.
- e) People _____ hurt animals, because they are important
- f) You _____ wash your hands before eating
- g) It's going to rain, you _____ take an umbrella
- h) Tom has a date, so he _____ wear nice clothes.