Taking you further

Sandman and Ace, two game fans, discuss Metal Gear Solid 4.

SANDMAN: Well, Ace my friend, MGS4 has finally been released. I have to say it was worth waiting for. I found it amazing.

ACE: Me too. I think it's the best-looking game ever. Everything looks so real.

SANDMAN: The sound is great too. The sound of the fights and chases, and also the music. That was awesome.

ACE: Yeah, I thought so too. And I really like the way the story begins with Old Snake in the back of a truck and then you're straight into the action. I love making Snake run, jump, climb and shoot at the enemy...What a blast!

SANDMAN: I agree with you about the start, but I didn't like some parts of the story. Don't you think it became too complicated?

ACE: No way! I thought the story was totally interesting the whole way through. Playing it was one of the most fantastic experiences I have had!

SANDMAN: I agree it's a cool game. I stayed up all night playing it!
