Copy the notes below in your book.

Composition

Writing a Story

A story has a beginning, middle and end. These events together make up the PLOT.

The Beginning: introduces the characters, the setting and the problem

Characters: Who is your story about?

Setting: Where does it take place?

Beginning: Who? Doing what? Where? When? Problem???

Problem: what problem does he/she have?

Middle: what action happens after the problem? What do they do to solve? First, Next, After that, Then…

Ending: How does it end? Good? Bad? What lesson do you want your readers to learn from your story?

Solution: talk about how the problem was solved

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Write a story beginning using the information below. Write the story on the lines below. Remember story beginning introduces the character, the setting and any problem the characters may have.

STORY BEGINNING: characters, setting, problen

Who: Mrs Strachan, Kattalaya, Isaiah, Vanae

What: having fun at beach

When: on Sunday afternoon

Where: at Goodman's Bay

Problem: can't swim;

*

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Listen to the video about story writing.

LIVEWORKSHEETS