A1-06 Should for advice

Should for Advice
You	should shouldn't	buy	this coat.
Use should for strong advice. Should is a modal verb: Do not use third person -s: You should buy it. / ~~You shoulds buy it.~~ Do not use do in negatives: You shouldn't buy it. / ~~You don't should buy it.~~

Yes / No Questions and Short Answers
Should	I	take	a taxi?	Yes, you should. No, you shouldn't.

Wh- Questions
What	should	I	do?

A. Write should or shouldn't.

1. You _____ take sunblock to the beach
2. You _____ eat healthy food.
3. You _____ smoke cigarettes.
4. A: I'm tired.
   B: You _____ get more sleep.
5. A: Should I take a taxi?
   B: No, you _____. It's expensive.

B. Give advice. Use should / shouldn't buy and it or them.

1. This coat is beautiful. You should buy it.
2. This camera is very expensive. _____
3. These shoes are nice. _____
4. These shirts are ugly! _____
5. This phone is fantastic! _____
6. This laptop is slow. _____

E. Match the questions to the answers.

1. Should I go to the gym? _____
2. Should we go now? _____
3. I'm sick. What should I do? _____

a. No, the movie starts later.
b. You should see a doctor.
c. Yes, you should. Exercise is good for yo

F. Match the statement with the advice.

1. It's so hot today. I don't know what to wear.
2. I'm staying in Madrid for three days.
3. I think I have the wrong bag!
4. The flights to Peru are expensive.
5. My flight's in an hour! I'm late!

A. You should go to some museums. ____
B. You shouldn't take it home. ____
C. You should wear a T-shirt. ____
D. You should take a taxi. ____
E. You shouldn't go there. ____
F. You should wear a nice dress. ____

G. Complete the sentences with the words from the box.

should	sure	try	suggested

1. What do you think I _____do?
2. I'm not _____ that's a good idea.
3. Perhaps you could _____ talking to Noelia about it.
4. So, I tried what you _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS