Present Simple versus Present Continuous

I. Look at the sentences below. Which use Present Simple (PS) and which use Present Continuous (PC)?

1. I go to the gym twice a week. _____
2. These days I'm studying for a test. _____
3. Leaves fall in autumn. _____
4. I'm cleaning the house now, so I will talk to you later! _____
5. She is living with her aunt until her parents return from holiday. _____

II. Read sentences 1-5 again and put them under the correct use:

Present Simple	Present Continuous
1. A repeated action, a habit, a routine.	1. An action happening at the moment of speaking
2. A situation that is always true.	2. A temporary situation, an exception to the rule
	3. An action happening around now, for a limited time

III. Put the time words in the box under the correct category:

USUALLY OFTEN NOW THESE DAYS AT THE MOMENT

NEVER RARELY IN THE MORNING TWICE A WEEK EVERY MONTH

ON SATURDAY LOOK! ALWAYS LISTEN! TODAY AT 7 O'CLOCK

Present Simple	Present Continuous

LIVEWORKSHEETS