

1. (Child / Children) will only be admitted into the stadium if accompanied by an adult.
2. Passengers must not unfasten their seat belts while the car is still in (moving / motion).
3. Clearwater features a recreation (complexity / complex) that includes a covered playground, as well as fishing piers and a camping area.
4. The use of recording equipment and the taking of (photography / photographs) during a performance are strictly prohibited by law.
5. Prior to working as an (architecture / architect) at LTD Associates, Samuel Fincher had run his own construction company.
6. In the foreword, the (illustration / illustrator) of the book mentioned that the artworks took more than six months to complete.
7. The (operation / operator) of the roller coaster should make sure that all of the customers are fastened in their seats before shifting the ride into motion.
8. (Photographers / Photographs) submitted for the annual photo contest will not be returned.
9. The benefits office has announced an early retirement package available to any full-time (employment / employee) who meets the requirements.
10. Internal job (announcers / announcements) are posted weekly on the bulletin board outside the Personnel Office.
11. We should call the box office to find out the duration of the (performers / performance).
12. The latest published market (analyst / analysis) shows increasing consumer interest in electronics goods throughout the country.
13. The company was able to pay off its loans by transferring the (owner / ownership) of its property to the bank.
14. The chief operating officer announced at the staff meeting that he was searching for a new (direction / director) for the media and public relations department.
15. The firm's (legal advising / legal advisor) has warned the marketing director not to sign the contract because some of the terms are overly vague.
16. During the program, the chef will cook some of his most popular dishes, and then offer audience (membership / members) samples to taste.

17. Although Mr. Sanders has informally expressed an interest in the new opening, he has not yet completed (an applicant / an application) for the position.
18. The director of Nyla Hospital says many of the improvements to the children's wing were financed by charitable (donors / donation) from wealthy business people.
19. Harrison Parker is a talented (photograph / photographer) who has taken pictures of many of the world's most famous natural wonders.
20. Peter and John's hotel chain, which has hotels throughout Asia, offers a range of excellent appliances and services for the business (traveling / travelers).
21. Mr. Bronson will review (to / the) recommendations and determine when the committee will reconvene.
22. Before the company audit can be carried out, we need to find (team of / a team of) consultants.
23. After a review of a television broadcast, journalists discovered that their program was (in an / in) error.
24. The old bridge was seriously damaged (as result of / as a result of) the hurricane that recently hit the coast.
25. The textile company has decided not to move its factory to Mexico (in effort to / in an effort to) stimulate the local economy.
26. We guarantee our vehicles are to (be most / be the most) fuel efficient you have ever owned, or we will purchase your gas for the next twelve months.
27. (All of / All of the) parents will receive a progress report for their children at the end of the month.
28. You wouldn't stand up and leave the room to answer a phone call (in middle of / in the middle of) a conference, so please keep your cell phone off during the meeting.
29. (In the order / In order) to receive prompt delivery, make sure your address is correct.
30. I think that your company's billing (the procedures / procedures) are too complicated, so they need to be changed.