GRINCH

He walked through the _____ and the sound and the lights and his ears heard the thump of their _____ and delights, and it took him right back to his earliest years to that lost lonely boy who cried all of those _____. That lost lonely boy isolated and sad with no home of his _____, no mom and no dad.

And as the Grinch looked around, he felt downright _____ as he remembered that Christmas where nobody cared or nobody _____, not even a flea and there were no cards, no gifts and no _____.

And as he watched other kids, one thing became _____: that this was the single worst day of the year. And now here it was that day once again and he felt all those feelings he felt way back when he'd watched Whos young and _____ all sat down to feast and they'd feast and they'd feast … they'd feast on Who-pudding and rare Who-roast beast which is _____ the Grinch could not stand in the least. And then they'd do something he liked least of all: every Who down in Whoville, the tall and the _____, would stand close together, with Christmas _____ ringing. They'd stand hand in _____ and the Whos would start singing. And they'll sing and they'll sing and they'll sing … Yes he couldn't recall without feeling the sting, so the Grinch finally declared: I must stop this _____ thing. Why, for 53 years I've put up with it, now I must stop this _____ from coming. But how? Then he got an idea, an awful idea. The Grinch got a wonderful, awful idea: I know just what to do: I'm going to steal their Christmas. All the trimmings, all their gifts and garlands, when they wait and see it's gone, then all their joy and happiness will be gone as well. So prepare yourself, Max, for tomorrow we _____!
