Assumption College Ubonratchathani
English for Science 1

Name:…… Class:…….. No. ……

How do plants make food?

TRUE or FALSE.

1. Plants make their own food.

   a. true b. false

2. Animals get their energy only from eating other animals that eat plants.

   a. true b. false

3. The food of plants is called chlorophyll.

   a. true b. false

4. Photosynthesis is the process by which plants make their own food in the presence of sunlight.

   a. true b. false

5. Photosynthesis happens by day and by night.

   a. true b. false

LIVEWORKSHEETS

6. Carbon dioxide is taken into the leaves through the stomata.

a. true b. false

7. Excess glucose is converted to starch and stored.

a. true b. false

8. The substance that makes the leaves green that traps the energy of the sun is called choloplasts.

a. true b. false

9. During photosynthesis, the gas that is used up to produce glucose is called carbon dioxide.

a. true b. false

10. During photosynthesis, the plants produced this gas that is needed by animals is called oxygen.

a. true b. false

LIVEWORKSHEETS