Sensory Words

Directions: Choose the sense that the writer is appealing to based on each sentence.

1. Holly and Bella would not stop barking as they played in the living room. sight | taste | smell | hearing | touch	2. The bright headlights were blinding as I drove through the night. sight | taste | smell | hearing | touch
3. The aroma of the pine-scented candle filled the room at Christmas sight | taste | smell | hearing | touch	4. The whistling of the train made passengers aware that it was departing the station. sight | taste | smell | hearing | touch
5. Jaiden did not enjoy the spearmint flavor of the gum his friend gave him. sight | taste | smell | hearing | touch	6. Apples and cinnamon filled the air as mom took the pie out of the oven. sight | taste | smell | hearing | touch
7. The cold wind made standing at the bus stop unbearable. sight | taste | smell | hearing | touch	8. When the giant wave knocked me down, I couldn't help but swallow the salty water. sight | taste | smell | hearing | touch
9. The fleece blanket kept me warm and cozy as I curled up on the couch. sight | taste | smell | hearing | touch	10. The butter sizzled and popped in the pan as it was melting. sight | taste | smell | hearing | touch

LIVEWORKSHEETS