(✗) INCORRECT	(✓) CORRECT
☹ Do you have a few orange juice?	☺ Do you have any orange juice?
✱ "Any" is used with countable and uncountable nouns which appear in questions, "a few" is used with countable nouns only.

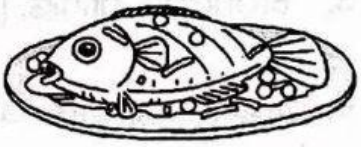
A Fill in the blanks with 'many' or 'much'.

1. Do not put too _____ sugar cubes in the coffee.
2. I have _____ toys in my room.
3. How _____ cloth does she need to make the dress?
4. There is so _____ smoke billowing out from the chimney.
5. There are _____ people in the stadium.
6. Hafiz drinks so _____ water after the game.
7. Do not put too _____ sauce in your porridge.
8. How _____ money does Aminah need to buy the dress?

B Fill in the blanks with 'a few' or 'a little'.



1. My mother puts _____ flowers in the vase.
2. The chef put _____ sauce to the fish.
3. There is only _____ time left for us to finish the work.
4. There are only _____ visitors at the museum.
5. I borrow _____ books from the library.
6. Haiful puts _____ shampoo on his hair.
7. _____ children are playing at the playground.
8. There is only _____ water left in the tank.

LIVEWORKSHEETS