Report: Class 5C & 5D Trip to the museum

On September 28th, there weren't any lessons for Class 5C and 5D. The children were at the museum. They weren't at school. There are 26 children in Class 5C and 24 in Class 5D. There were lots of children at the museum and there were six teachers, too.

The museum was near the school and they liked walking there. However, it was very hot and the children were tired. At the museum, there were lots of old cars and trains. It was a good museum for some children, but some children don't like cars and trains and they didn't like the trip to the museum.

In October, the children are going to go to the zoo. It isn't near the school and they're going to go by bus. They're going to learn about animals, their homes and their food. There's a park near the zoo. They're going to havea picnic and play in the park. The next trip is going to be more fun for all the children!

Example: Were there lessons for Class 5D on September 28th?

A. No, there weren't. They were at the zoo.

(B.) Yes, there were. There were lessons for the children.

C. No, there weren't. They were at the museum.

1. How many people were at the museum for the trip?
