Instrumental Music in the Baroque Period

What family of instruments became very important in the baroque?

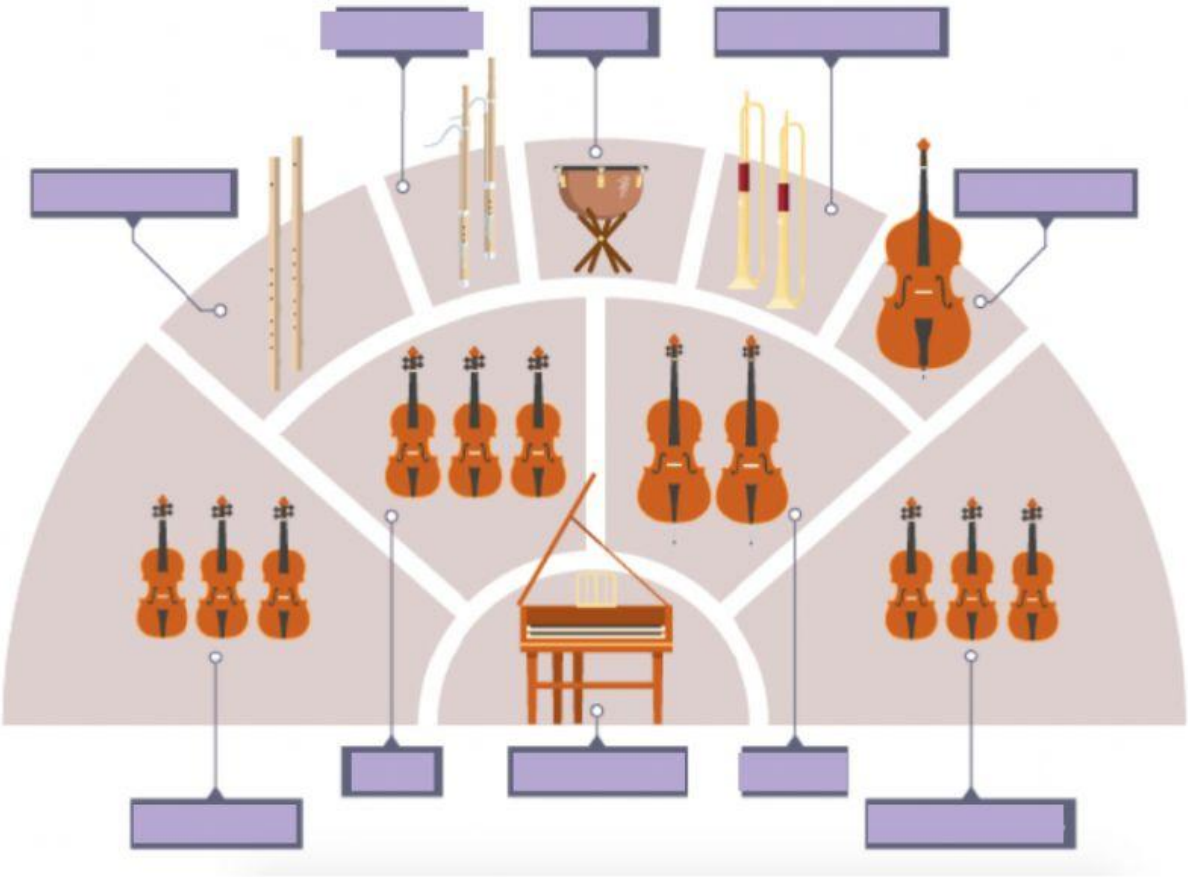
What are the instrument builders called?

Which Italian family made the best violins?

How many musicians were there in a baroque orchestra?

What instrument was placed in the center and did the work of the chapel master?

Put the instruments in the right place



LIVEWORKSHEETS

Connect each musical form with its corresponding meaning.

Sonata	Concerto for one single soloist with orchestral accompniment
Suite	Piece for one or more soloists with accompaniment on the harpsichord or cello
Concerto Grosso	composition of a single movement and in contrapuntal style (imitative counterpoint), usually with three or four voices
Concerto Solo	Concerto for many soloist and orchestral accompaniment.
Fuga	A mix of contrasting dances

What genre emerges in Spain similar to opera?

Which instrument will become the national instrument?

LIVEWORKSHEETS