W17 CATHOLICS AND PROTESTANTS

TRUE/FALSE

Directions: Read and match each statement whether if it's true or false.

- Catholics met in Trent, Italy, to decide how to reform their church.
- The Catholic Church set up seminaries to sell indulgences.
- The Jesuits wanted to bring Protestant reforms to all of Europe.
- The Catholic rulers of Spain welcomed all religions to their country.
- Miguel de Cervantes and El Greco were prevented by Catholic rulers from creating works of art.

SEQUENCING

Directions: Read and organize the events that occurred on the dates shown.

1559	Henry of Navarre issued an order "The Edict of Nantes" which says Catholicism was the official religion in France.
1572	The warring nations signed the Peace of Westphalia.
1588	Henry of Navarre became France's king and converted to Catholicism.
1589	The Thirty Years' War began.
1598	Philip sent the Spanish Armada to England.
1618	Catherine de' Medici ruled France for her young son.
1643	The Holy Roman Emperor asked for peace.
1648	Catherine allowed Catholic nobles to kill the leading Huguenots.

LIVEWORKSHEETS