

Grammar : Suggesting

LET'S

WHY NOT

HOW ABOUT

MAYBE

Read the dialogue :

Amy: What are we going to do today?

Rachel: Maybe we could watch a scary movie?

Amy: Why not! This is a good idea. Why don't you set up the DVD player?

Rachel: Sure, but what movie are we watching? Any idea?

Amy: How about The Sixth Sense?

Rachel: Oh yes! You know what? We should make some popcorn too.

Amy: Let's do it!

=> Dans ce dialogue, les deux personnes se font des suggestions.

Comment ces répliques sont-elles formulées?

1. Let's + base verbale
2. Why + don't / doesn't + sujet + base verbale
3. How about + nom (groupe nominal ou base verbale + ING)
4. Maybe you should / could + base verbale

Training time:

Complete the following ideas for a Halloween party:

maybe you could - let's - - why don't we - why don't you - how about - how about - what about - maybe you should - let's - maybe you should - maybe you could - Let's

- | | |
|----|---|
| a) | going treat or treating? |
| b) | put on scary costumes! |
| c) | throw a party! |
| d) | renting a scary movie. |
| e) | buy sweets. |
| f) | decorate a house. |
| g) | cook monster cookies? |
| h) | carve some Jack o'lanterns out of pumpkins. |
| i) | make some paper bats? |
| j) | buying a plastic skeleton? |
| k) | put candles all over the house. |
| l) | choose some spooky music. |