How To Reduce Stress?

By Nur Aina Zamri

Stress is a feeling that people have when they are struggling to cope with demands in everyday life. These demands can be finance, work or relationship related. Too much stress can lead to physical problems. A high level of unhealthy stress is known as chronic stress.

That is why it is important to learn how to manage stress. Firstly, eat a healthy diet and be mindful of what you eat. Start your day right with breakfast and keep your energy up and your mind clear with balanced, nutritious meal throughout the day. Well-nourished bodies are better prepared to cope with stress.

Next, get enough sleep every night. Your body needs rest, and adequate sleep will fuel your mind as well as your body. Feeling tired as a result of insufficient sleep will increase stress because it causes you to think irrationally. Moreover, it can put you at risk of serious illnesses such as diabetes, obesity and depression.

Additionally, keep a planner to help you better organised. You can list all the tasks that need to be completed and see which tasks need to be prioritised. Beside that, avoid procrastination. Try to complete all your tasks on time and before you go to bed. This is to avoid unnecessary stress. You have to avoid solitude and surround yourself with supportive friends and family as they will lessen the risk of a nervous breakdown.

We cannot avoid stress in our daily life, but learn how to manage and cope with it quickly and effectively will help us in maintaining a healthy emotional state.

Dear Sir,

Complaint About Unsatisfactory Food and Restaurant Service

I wish to express my dissatisfaction about the food and service at your established and well-known restaurant. On behalf of my family, I would like to raise a few points regarding this matter. My family and I had dinner at your restaurant on 21st August 2020 to celebrate my father's 63rd birthday. We expected to have a great time at your restaurant but unfortunately, we did not.

2. Firstly, your waiters treated us rudely and inconsiderately. No one attended to us for about half an hour and when the waiter finally showed up, we were spoken to rudely whilst our orders were being taken.

3. Beside that, the service was very slow. It took nearly an hour for our food to be fully prepared. What made matters worse was that after waiting for so long, the waiter brought the wrong food and he had to take it back.

4. We also felt uncomfortable with the dirty and unhygienic condition of the utensils used at the restaurant. The cups and plates were oily and not washed properly, which is a hazard. Customers might get food poisoning or contract other health problems.

5. I almost lost RM48 as a result of the wrongly totaled bill I was given. It was my brother who noticed the unreasonable price of the food. Then we recounted the bill and found it was wrongly calculated. The total was supposed to be RM130 but the amount made by the cashier was RM178.

6. Hence, I would like to make suggestions to improve your service. First of all, I suggest that you train your waiters to provide good service to customers. You must advise your cashier to calculate the bills correctly. Last but not least, cleanliness should be priority in your restaurant.

I would appreciate hearing from you as soon as possible. Thank you in advance for your co-operation.

Yours faithfully,

Suraya Ahmad

Questions 35 – 40

You are going to read the text about happiness.

Six sentences have been removed from the article. Choose from the sentences (A-H) to fit each gap (35-40). There are two extra sentences which you do not need to use. For each question, mark the correct answer (A-H) on your answer sheet.

Create Your Own Happiness

Happiness is a state of mind that often comes with a good attitude and approach to life. Each of us has 24 hours in a day to work with. 35. . We have the power to change ourselves and improve our lives.

36. . Doing what you love to do is a simple way to increase your happiness. Schedule your life around the small things that delight you.

Surround yourself with people who are going to lift you higher. It's better to have a few quality friends who inspire us than tons of friends who leave you in a negative state of mind.

37. .

Make some time for yourself. 38. . There will always be something you 'should' be doing. Scheduling and keeping to that 'me' time is an important part of helping you stay happy.

It's easy to get stuck in routines. Move out of your comfort zone. 39. . Eat new food. Explore new music. Discover a new author or movie. Consider a new sport, a new fitness gadget or a type of exercise you never thought you'd try. This will bring happiness into your life.

40. . Spending time in nature can reduce stress and increase feelings of vitality, awe, gratitude and compassion. Nature nurtures and restores. It is a wonderful resource for happiness.

The secret to happiness lies in helping others too. There is a Chinese saying that goes 'If you want happiness for an hour, take a nap. If you want happiness for a day, go fishing. If you want happiness for a year, inherit a fortune. If you want happiness for a lifetime, help someone'. When you help others, you feel a sense of accomplishment and positivity that helps sustain happiness, too.

- A It's up to us to decide how to use that time.
- B You can renew your energy by trying something you've never tried before.
- C Reconnect with what brings you joy.
- D Immerse yourself in nature.
- E Stick with those who makes you happy.
- F Engage your brain by thinking critically.
- G It will give you a break from your daily routine while refreshing your mind.
- H Take a weekend trip where you can disconnect from the noisy world you live in.
