There once was a king named Midas who did a good act he was granted a wish by Dionysus, the god of wine.

For his wish, Midas asked that whatever he touched would turn into gold. Dionysus tried to prevent it, Midas insisted that this was a fantastic wish, it was conceded.

Excited about his new powers, Midas started touching all kinds of things, turning each object into pure gold.

soon, Midas became hungry. he picked up a piece of food, he couldn't eat it it had turned into gold in his hand.

Hungry, Midas groaned, "I'll starve! Perhaps this was not such an excellent wish after all!"

Seeing his worry, Midas' daughter put her arms around him to comfort him, and she turned into gold .

"Oh no! The golden touch is no blessing!" Midas cried.
