Christmas Preparations Mad Lib

Santa was (adjective)_____. He was getting ready for the (adjective ending in est) _____ day of the (time period)_____. All of his (fantasy character plural) _____were hard at work (verb ending in ing)_____ toys for the little (noun plural) _____ and (noun plural) _____ who would receive them at (Holiday) _____.

Santa was checking his (noun)_____ twice, seeing who was (adjective)_____ or (adjective) _____. Santa did not want to give any child the wrong (noun) _____. Each child who was nice would receive a (noun)_____, but each child who had been naughty would receive (noun)_____. He did not want any mistakes to spoil (Holiday)_____, so he checked his (noun)_____ again.

Besides getting all the (noun plural) _____ready for the big day. He also needed to make sure that the (animal plural) _____ were ready to fly on Christmas eve and that the (mode of transportation)_____ was waxed and ready for the big day. Santa checked in with the (fantasy character)_____ in charge of their training. "Are all the (same animal plural) _____ ready for the big day?" (name)_____ replied, "All ready here. Rudolph's (body part) _____ is bright as ever and he ready to (verb) _____ the way again. Oh and we repainted the sleigh (color)_____." Santa looked at the sleigh in (adjective)_____. "But it has always been (color)_____! What will the kids think if we change the color after all these years!"

LIVEWORKSHEETS