PUT THE EVENTS IN THE CHRONOLOGICAL ORDER

1. As a teenager, she was very sporty
2. She has a happy childhood on a farm.
3. My grandma was born just after the Second World War.
4. As an elderly person, she started travelling.
5. When she grew up she married my grandfather.
6. As an adult, she worked hard and looked after her family.
7. She was a pretty baby with blonde curls.

CHOOSE THE CORRECT PREPOSITION

She looked sad, so I tried to cheer her ON / UP.

Our dog has run OFF / AWAY and we're trying to find it.

Tony's aunt brought him UP / OUT because his parents died in an accident.

I had an argument wih my cousin last night, but we have made UP/OUT now.

FILL IN WITH THE MISSING VERB

_____ a shower
_____ ready for school
_____ friends for a party
_____ grandpa in summer
_____ in love with someone
_____ in a new house
_____ out with friends
_____ an exam :-(
_____ an exam :-)
_____ in cash for a pizza
_____ out in a gym
_____ a song in a choir
_____ skiing in the mountains
_____ someone a present
_____ a good grade
_____ with friends

LIVEWORKSHEETS