FUTURE SIMPLE WILL

will: prediction

We use will to talk about a future event, something that we think or predict will happen.
We usually use the contraction won't (will not) for a negative prediction.
After will / won't we use the infinitive without to.

Did you know?
The first future tense is the future with "will." Use the future with will to talk about an event in the future that you have just decided to do, for predictions and for promises.

Remember
Use the future with will to talk about an event in the future that you have just decided to do, for predictions and for promises.

Curious fact…

Use "will" to make predictions or state facts about the future. Predictions are things that you will will (or won't) happen in the future. You can predict that "it will not rain tomorrow" or that "the world will end in a week."
