Comparatives and superlatives

Use the adjectives in parentheses to complete the sentences. Use the comparative form (adj + -er + than or more + adj + than) or the superlative form (the + adj + -est or the most + adj).

1. That painting is nicer than this one. (nice)
2. An elephant is _____ a horse. (large)
3. I think biology class is _____ than chemistry class. (interesting)
4. She is the _____ basketball player in our school. (good)
5. There is _____ water in this tank than there is in that one. (little)
6. Yesterday was the _____ day so far this year. (cool)
7. That street is _____ now than before, and you need to be _____ when you try to cross. (busy), (careful)
8. The Willis Tower in Chicago is one of the _____ buildings in the United States right now. (tall)

Copyright © 2019 Pearson Education, Inc.

LIVEWORKSHEETS