ROBIN HOOD & THE ARCHERY CONTEST

The Sheriff of Nottingham was cruel. He only wanted the people's money. People worked hard but they were very poor.

Robin Hood lived in Sherwood Forest. He was a good man. He helped the poor people so they loved him.

The Sheriff wanted to catch Robin Hood, so he organised an archery contest.

They celebrated the contest at the Sheriff's castle. Robin Hood dressed up as an old man, so the Sheriff didn't recognise him.

Robin Hood was the winner so the Sheriff realized the old man was Robin Hood.

The Sheriff and his men wanted to catch Robin, but he escaped to the forest.

YES / NO QUESTION

⊙ Was the Sheriff of Nottingham a good person?

⊙ Did he want the people's money?

⊙ Did the people work hard?

⊙ Were the people rich?

⊙ Was Robin Hood a good person?

⊙ Did the people hate Robin Hood?

⊙ Was the contest celebrated at the Sheriff's castle?

⊙ Was Sir Guy the winner of the contest?

⊙ Did the Sheriff catch Robin Hood?

LIVEWORKSHEETS