

CONDITIONALS AND UNREAL PAST 2

I. Transform the sentences into conditionals.

1. She isn't happy so she doesn't often smile.
If she often.
2. They will keep the dog but she must promise to look after it.
They will keep the dog provided it.
3. She is always busy, so she didn't have time for me yesterday.
If she for me yesterday.
4. I think you should ask for help.
If for help.
5. He won't stay with us if you don't offer him a pay rise.
Unless with us.
6. She drank 3 coffees, so she can't sleep now.
If she now.
7. Burning rubber makes it produce black smoke.
If you black smoke.

II. Transform the sentences using the words in bold.

1. If Tom wasn't ill, he would go to the show with you. BUT
..... to the show with you.
2. Write down a note because you may forget about the appointment. CASE
..... about the appointment.
3. He is sorry that he doesn't earn a lot of money. WISHES
..... a lot of money.
4. She says she doesn't want to dance. RATHER
She
5. Maybe he doesn't love her any more. That's how he behaves. IF
He behaves any more.
6. We should have finished it then. ABOUT
It then.
7. I don't like it that you treat me like a child. SOONER
..... me like a child.
8. It didn't matter that they didn't help him, he succeeded anyway. WHETHER
He him.