14.- Write questions for the underlined parts of these sentences; the answer to each question must be the underlined part.

Example: My mother bought me a book. → What did your mother buy you?

The cat caught a mouse.

The mouse was eating a piece of cheese.

The child broke the vase playing with a ball.

He was playing in the sitting-room.

She took an aspirin yesterday evening.

She was feeling sick.

We ate a turkey with our American friends.

I saw an opera in Paris.

We were spending a week there on holiday.

We brought this pencil from London.

I slept for fifteen hours because I was very tired.

We were walking for two days in the desert.

We drank two beers at the pub.

We were celebrating our victory against Arsenal.

The newspaper cost one pound.

We met Bobby at the party.

He was dancing with his new girlfriend.