Review worksheet 4. Look at the following sentences about liquids, solids and gasses.
Select 'True' or 'False' from the drop down answers.

1. A solid has a fixed shape. You cannot change the shape of a glass ball.

2. A gas can change it's volume, but the pressure of a gas always stays the same.

3. Two bottles of water (300 ml + 300 ml) weighs more than one bottle. (300 ml)

4. All matter has mass. This includes solids and liquids and also gasses.

5. A liquid has a fixed shape. You cannot change the shape of water.

LIVEWORKSHEETS