I am sitting in the morning
At the diner on the corner
I at the counter
For the man to pour the coffee

And he fills it only halfway
And before I even argue
He out the window
At somebody coming in

"It is always nice to see you,"
Says the man behind the counter
To the woman who has come in
She her umbrella

And I look the other way
As they their hellos
And I'm pretending not to see them
And instead I pour the milk

I open up the paper
There's a story of an actor
Who had died while he was drinking
It was no one I had heard of

And I'm turning to the horoscope

And looking for the funnies
When I'm feeling someone watching me
And so I raise my head

There's a woman on the outside
Looking inside
Does she see me?
No she does not really see me
'Cause she sees her own reflection

And I not to notice
That she's hitching up her skirt
And while she's straightening her stockings
Her hair has gotten wet

Oh, this rain
It will continue through the morning
As I to the bells of the cathedral

I of your voice
And of the midnight picnic once upon a time before the rain began

And I finish up my coffee
And it's time to catch the train
