What has just happened ?
Kids during lockdown...

Utilisation 2 du PRESENT PERFECT :
Dire ce qu'il vient de se passer...

The baby has just broken eggs on the floor.
(Le bébé vient juste de casser des œufs sur le sol.)

Your turn ! Write the verb in the correct form, don't forget « JUST »

REGULAR VERBS : -ED
IRREGULAR VERBS : 3rd column/ past participle

The children _____(ruin) the sofa.

The little girl _____(spill) orange juice on the table.

NB : SPILL can be regular or irregular, use the regular form here.

The little baby _____ (vomit) on his mother.

The little boy _____ (drink)
the water from the fishtank.

The little girl _____ (fall)
into the toilet.

The kids _____ (paint)
the whole living room.

The little girl _____(draw) on her little brother's face.

The little baby_____(put)
a nappy on his head.

The little girl _____(annoy)
a peacock.

The little boy _____(break)
the laptop.

The little girl _____(write) a sweet message on her dad and mum's car.