READING
IV QUARTER 5%
Fourth Grade A, B, and C
Week of April 18th to April 22nd, 2022

NAME: _____ Date: ___/___/2022

Fade	cautiously	crisscrossed	wisdom	jealousy
disguised	faint

Answer each question by using a vocabulary word that means the same as the underlined phrase.

1. Does light gown dim after the sun sets?

The light does fade after sunset. The light does fade before sunset.

2. Is it hard to hear a very light, soft whisper?

It is easy to hear a faint whisper. It is hard to hear a faint whisper.

3. Do older people have more good sense than younger people?

Yes, older people do have more wisdom. Yes, older people do have less wisdom.

4. Was the snowy parking lot marked by crossed lines with tire tracks?

The lot was crisscrossed by heavy tracks. The lot was crisscrossed by tire tracks.

5. Did the student enter the principal´s office hesitantly?

He did enter the office cautiously. He did leave the office cautiously.

6. At the costume party, who came dressed up as someone famous?

Melvin came disguised as Elvis Presley. Melvin was disguised as Elvis Presley.

7. Do silver-medal winners look at the gold medal with envy?

No, the silver medalists don´t always have feelings of happyness. No, the silver medalists don´t always have feelings of jealousy

LIVEWORKSHEETS