HARI VIDYA BHAWAN

CLASS- 6th SCIENCE CHAPTER- 10

A. Choose the correct option:

1.The place where a living organism lives and grows naturally is called _____.

a. environment b. surrounding

c. habit d. habitat

2. _____ does not have an arboreal habit.

a. squirrel b. insect

c. monkey d. cheetah

3. Photosynthesis in cactus is performed by _____.

a. stem b. leaf

c. spine d. root

4. The hump of camel stores _____.

a. fat b. carbohydrate

c. water d. both a. and c.

5. _____ is an example fully submerged plant.

a. hydrilla b. lotus

c. rose d. none of these

6. _____ plants are called succulent plants.

a. rain forest b. desert

c. aquatic d. mountain

7. _____ is an example of predator.

a. deer b. cow

c. lion d. insect

8. The leaves of _____ plants have drip tips to prevent water accumulation.

a. desert b. polar region

c. aquatic d. rain forest

LIVEWORKSHEETS

9. The organisms spend most of time in air are called _____.

a. terrestrial b. aquatic

c. aerial d. arboreal

10. _____ is an example of amphibian.

a. frog b. tiger

c. camel d. fish

11. Skin colour of some animals and insects help them to _____.

a. take hibernation b. camouflage

c. photosynthesis d. buoyancy

12. Oil glands under feather of aquatic birds help in _____.

a. camouflage b. buoyancy

c. waterproofing d. swimming

LIVEWORKSHEETS