

A quick tip: We use past simple tense for referring to a completed action in the past; past continuous tense for referring to a continuous action going on at a specific time in the past and past perfect tense for referring to an action which happened before another past action.

- Last night,Irem's boyfriend the room while she was talking with another boy on the phone.
a)was entering b)entered c)had entered
- Can on the sofa when the baby started to cry.
a)had slept b)slept c)was sleeping
- World War 1 when World War 2 began. a)was already ending b)had already ended c)alreasy ended
- Ece the movie 'Da Vinci Code' at ten o'clock yesterday.
a)watched b)was watching c)had watched
- The family last on a vacation in 2010.
a)was going b)had gone c)went
- The crowd after the mayor had made his speech.
a)had cheered b)was cheering c)cheered
- We a huge,beautiful house when I was a child.
a)had b>were having c)had had
- Before the man this job a year ago,he had graduated from university in 1999.
a)had found b)found c)was finding
- The girl on her project while her mother was feding her baby sister.
a)worked b)had worked c)was working
- you at the meeting yesterday? I didn't see you there.
a)Were b)Did c)Had been
- By the time the police at the crime scene,the murderer a)arrived/had already left b)had arrived/already left c)were arriving/already left
- While I yesterday morning,I my friend Lisa.
a)was jogging/was seeing b)jogged/saw c)was jogging/saw
- Jane and Jim a baby soon after they a)had/married. b)had/had married. c)had had/married.

1) When I was three years old,
2) Before I went to bed yesterday,
3) Last summer,
4) While I was doing my homework yesterday,
5) After the couple had argued,
6) When the bell rang,
7) I forgave him
8) The dog was barking