RMIT Classification: Trusted

RMIT ENGLISH WORLDWIDE

Vocabulary review :

Correct the mistake or complete the sentence with the correct word

1. Correct the mistake:

The SARS outbreak was an event of global significantly.

_____

2. Correct the mistake:

The SARS outbreak was a insignificance pandemic of global importance.

_____

3. Correct the mistake:

The new facilitator at RMIT are modern and clean with free WIFI for both staff and students.

_____

4. Fill in the gap with the correct word:

_____ (someone who works in medicine) experts all agree that _____ (a disease that occurs either nationally or globally) such as COVID and H1N1 will become more common in the future.

5. Correct the mistake:

To cope with future diseases, it's essential that people have accessed to afford medical care.

_____ _____

6. Correct the mistake:

What rate will I get if I converted my RMB into Australia dollars?

_____ _____

7. Correct the mistake:

The weather predict for tomorrow is that it will raining.

_____ _____

8. Correct the mistake:

Secure on public transport has been greatly improved as it's essential that passengers feel securely.

_____ _____

9. Fill the gap with the correct word:

A COVID vaccine gives a person some _____ (immune) but that does not mean that they will not catch the virus.

10. Correct the mistake:

COVID is transmit through coughing, sneezing or when a person touches an infect object.

_____ _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS