Watch the episode and find extra words

1. Some shared these memories in a vivid detail.

2. These findings may to sound unbelievable.

3. Including vivid images of a university campus, none of them had ever visited.

4. They frequently recalled that then they saw the magnifying glass and the lollipop.

5. They gave each group the same as information.

6. Suggestibility could be result in incorrect identification.

7. The problems arise when we treat memories as like fact.

LIVEWORKSHEETS