READING – FICTION & NON-FICTION NOTES

Instructions: Write these notes neatly in your Reading notebook. Show them to me tomorrow and get "on task" points. Remember to head up your book properly, draw your margin lines and skip a line after each bullet point.

- Fiction is an entertaining, make-believe story that is not real.
- Non-fiction books are about real things, animals, people, places, and events.
- The author's purpose for a fiction book or writing is to entertain while a non-fiction book or piece is to inform.

Examples:

- Fiction: short story, fable, realistic fiction, fairytale, legends, poetry, mystery, fantasy, myths, science fiction, historical fiction, and folklore.
- Non-fiction: journal, letters, advertisements, textbooks, reports, interviews, directions, dictionary and brochures.
